

DARE COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION

August 30, 2010

The Dare County Board of Education held a workshop at 6:00 p.m. on Monday, August 30, 2010, at the Administrative Office in Nags Head to review the state's new model for School Improvement Plans and to review the state's requirements for Academically and Intellectually Gifted Education Plans. Members in attendance were Chairman David Oaksmith, Vice-Chairman Ben Sproul, Bea Basnight, Benjamin Cahoon, Anthony Fletcher, Walter Holton, and Margaret Lawler.

Superintendent Sue Burgess reviewed the purpose of the workshop with Board Members. She then called on Director of Secondary Instruction Nancy Griffin to give a presentation of the state's changes to the formats for School Improvement Plans.

Next, the board received a presentation from Director of Elementary Instruction Judi Hornbeck on the state's requirements for Academically and Intellectually Gifted Education Plans. Finance Officer Anna McGinnis reviewed the Academically and Intellectually Gifted Education Plan Budget with the Board.

No action was taken at the workshop. The Dare County Academically and Intellectually Gifted Education Plan will be presented to the board for approval at the next regular meeting.

The workshop concluded at 7:30 p.m.
